Forecast for Tuesday 21 Mar 2023

Weather: Mostly cloudy at first, perhaps with some early drizzly outbreaks. Cloud starting to break during the morning allowing some brighter spells, but also allowing heavy showers to develop with a risk of thunder. Showers will die away during the afternoon to leave a dry early evening with some brighter spells, but heavy rain arriving during the evening. Wind strengthening during the evening to give summit gales.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 600m: 30%, rising 90% in the afternoon, then decreasing to 20% in the evening.

Low Cloud and visibility: Extensive cloud, base 400 to 600m, lifting and breaking during the morning to be mostly near or just above the summits for the afternoon. Extensive cloud developing once again in the evening, base 300 to 500m. Visibility moderate or poor in rain or heavy showers, and very poor in low cloud covering the hills, but good at times away from cloud and showers.
